REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art fails to disclose, in combination with all the limitations:

With respect to claims 19, 23, a regeneration circuit providing, through the output terminal, the storage means with current flowing through the field winding depending on magnetic energy preserved in the field winding, when the switching element is turned off and the regeneration circuit including a first diode placed to connect one terminal of the field winding and the negative pole terminal of the storage means and a second diode placed, through the output terminal, to connect the other terminal of the field winding and the positive pole terminal of the storage means.

With respect to claims 20, 24, a regeneration circuit providing, through the output terminal, the storage means with current flowing through the field winding depending on magnetic energy preserved in the field winding when the switching element is turned off, wherein the regeneration circuit includes a third switch placed to connect the one terminal of the field winding and the negative pole terminal of the storage means and a fourth switch placed, through the output terminal, to connect to the other terminal of the field winding and the positive pole terminal of the storage means an on/off control unit bringing each of the third and fourth switches into an off-state when each of the first and second switches are in an on-state and bringing each of the thirds and fourth switches into an on-state when each of the first and second switches are in an off-state.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Julio C. Gonzalez whose telephone number is 571-272-2024. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F (8AM-5PM).
